

SOCIETY.

Final preparations are being made for the presentation of the oratorio, "The Messiah," the evening of December 16 in the Auditorium. The Topeka Musical Art society has the affair in charge and it is expected to be the largest musical event of the year in Topeka. The soloists will come from out of town, but the chorus will consist of 200 voices of local people. Added to that, the high school will furnish 65 singers to join in the singing of the Hallelujah chorus, and there will be an orchestra of about 50 pieces.

The parquetry of the Auditorium will be divided off into boxes, making thirty boxes in all. The patrons of the entertainment will be the box holders. The managers of the affair have devised an excellent plan. Instead of building the boxes with lumber, the division will be made by encircling a certain number of seats with ribbon, and marking off the squares with palms at each corner.

Among the patrons who have already engaged boxes are: Mr. and Mrs. Hiram P. Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Gled, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Capper, Mrs. Jonathan Thomas, Madame Lundesouther, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Guild, Mr. and Mrs. A. Godard, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kouns, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Derby and Mr. W. W. Mills.

The chorus is under the direction of Dean Horace Whitehouse, and good many of the Washburn musical people will take part in the event.

Miss Clyde Bonebrake will go to Kansas City next week to attend the marriage of her cousin, Mr. Harry Spencer, to Miss Daisy Hoffman, which will take place December 9. Mr. Spencer has occasionally visited in Topeka, and his sister, Miss Louise Spencer, is well known among the society people of Miss Bonebrake's set. Miss Hoffman also has friends in Topeka.

Mrs. J. C. Gafford entertained the Duplicate Whist club Friday afternoon, and the substitutes at the meeting were Mrs. George Parkhurst and Mrs. Arch Catlin.

Mrs. Luther Coppock entertained the Topeka Avenue Bridge club at luncheon and cards Friday. Besides the members, the following women were guests: Mrs. A. W. Bronson, Mrs. V. B. Kistler, Mrs. H. A. Perry, Mrs. Ed. Gresser, Mrs. Charles Vore, Mrs. Harry Seery and Mrs. Moffett.

The marriage of Miss Mary Dewey of Stockton and Mr. Oscar W. Bolton of Topeka took place Tuesday in Stockton. The bride was given away by Mr. Charles Hoyt Dewey. She was a former Washburn college student and a member of the Beta sorority. Mr. Bolton is a graduate of Washburn and a Kappa Kappa Gamma member. He has a position in the Santa Fe offices. Mr. and Mrs. Bolton will be at home after January 1 at 211 Elmwood avenue, Potwin.

Mrs. H. A. Perry will be hostess at a meeting of the Monday Bridge club Monday next week at her home, 619 Taylor street.

The next meeting of the Spalding Reading Circle will be held Monday evening, December 7th at 7:45 in the Knights of Columbus club rooms; the program is in the hands of Miss Anna Buchanan.

Mrs. Richards, of 1139 Garfield avenue, gave a luncheon today for the members of the Topeka Alumnae association of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, the affair being in honor of Mrs. George H. Hodges, who is a member of the sorority.

The decorations for the luncheon were in the Kappa colors, black and light blue, and two out of town guests who were present were Mrs. John Kilworth and Miss Virginia Edwards, both of Lawrence. Covers were placed for Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. Kilworth, Miss Edwards, Mrs. Allen Otis, Mrs. Thos. Keesham, Mrs. G. O. Smith, Mrs. Albert Winter, Mrs. L. T. Price, Miss Anna Banks, Dean Edith Twiss of Washburn college, Miss Helen Spielman, Miss Florence Dice and Mrs. Richards.

A meeting of the Matinee Music club will be held at 2:30 o'clock next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert T. Reid. It is to be an important meeting, and the members are specially urged to be present.

Mrs. H. H. Hazlett, Mrs. George Thompson and Mrs. Taliaferro will be hostesses at a meeting of the central division of the Chancel chapter of Grace cathedral, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at Mrs. Hazlett's home, 1218 Elmwood street.

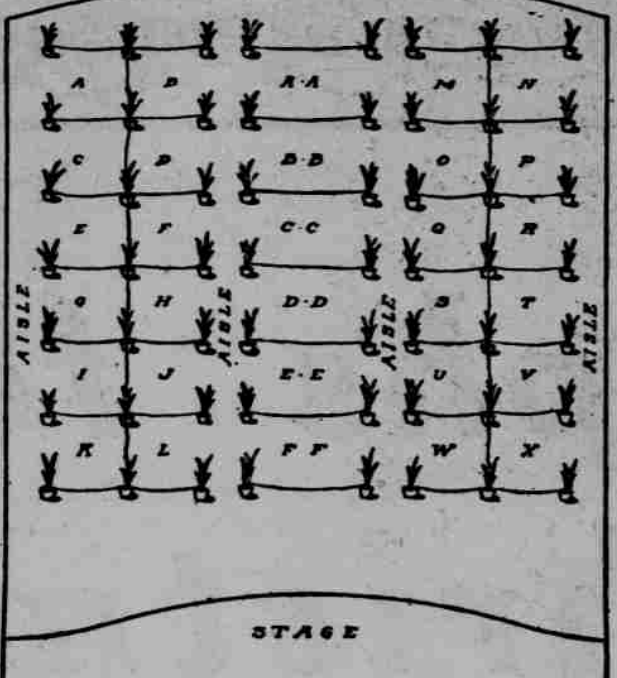

The Ladies' Music club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank P. MacLennan, 1019 Topeka avenue.

The T. G. F. club which was to have met next Friday has postponed its meetings until after the holidays.

Miss Frances McGinnis gave a class party Friday evening, to which the following guests were asked: Miss Wilda Bell, Miss Gladys Spencer, Miss Lily Crosswhite, Miss Iva Wiley, Miss Elsie Harrison, Miss Marjorie Smith, Miss Reba Kerns, Miss Mildred Hobson, Miss Ruth Robson, Miss Zelma Ferine, Mr. Earl Bunker, Mr. Paul Horner, Mr. Harry Dillon, Mr. Henry Smith, Mr. Carl Franks, Mr. Edward Short, Mr. Howard Short, Mr. Dewey Gregg, Mr. Charles Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell entertained the following guests informally at dinner: Miss Agnes Ray, Miss Gladys Kemper, Mr. Raine Edson, Mr. Waldo Heywood.

A travelogue will be given Saturday afternoon, December 12, at 2:30 o'clock, at Y. M. C. A., under the auspices of the Good Government club. Mrs. Lee Monroe, who traveled in Europe the past summer, will be the speaker of the afternoon. A silver offering will be taken and will be used for the Belgian relief work.

Plan of Boxes for the Parquet of Auditorium for the "Messiah" Oratorio.

A part of the lecture will be devoted to cathedrals of Great Britain and description of the Elgin cathedral of Scotland will be given by Mr. John Dawson, who lived in its neighborhood during his early life.

The Good Government club is sending out today the boxes it has been preparing the past few weeks for the Belgians. There are 16 layettes in the boxes, and ten more are being made ready for a later shipment. A modest estimate of the value of the shipment is placed at $5 for each layette. Mr. A. A. Hyde of Wichita, of Menhollatum fame, has sent a box of Menhollatum medicine.

The Parke-Davis company of Topeka gave a hundred boxes of talcum powder. Mrs. H. L. Alkire and Miss Anna Purcell each gave a layette, and put with the bundles a package of clothing for the mothers as well as the babies.

Mrs. George Stone sent a note of greeting written in French, in each of the boxes.

Mr. Franklin Hunt of Kansas City will sing the offertory at the nine o'clock mass at the Church of the Assumption Sunday morning.

A number of Topeka women who have collections of ancient and modern dolls and dolls made in various nations, will lend them for an exhibition to be given in connection with a sale to be held by some of the women of the First Presbyterian church. The exhibition will be held Wednesday afternoon and evening, and those who are contributing to it are: Mrs. George Whitcomb, who has a remarkable collection of about a hundred dolls; Mrs. Jack Dillon, Mrs. C. T. McLehlan, Mrs. H. M. Washburn, Mrs. H. O. Garvey, Mrs. Charles Spencer, Mrs. A. K. Rodgers, Mrs. J. H. Frizell, Mrs. J. H. Close, Mrs. Ed. Grote, Mrs. Lee Forbes, Mrs. C. S. Tomlinson, Mrs. Chad Hamilton, Mrs. Elton S. Clark, Mrs. J. W. F. Hughes, Miss Elsie Cuthbert, Miss Grace Dana, Miss Marian Dana, Miss Clemma Bolland, Miss Frances Grose, Miss Mildred Grote, Miss Juliette Brown, Miss Mary MacLennan, Miss Ruth Koester, Miss Theo Cobb, Miss Violet Crumline, Miss Louise McLehlan, Miss Nell McFarland, Miss Jean Pettit, Miss Juliet Hughes, Miss Jean Koonitz, Miss Mildred Nicholas, Miss Janette Edelblute, Miss Katherine McFarland, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Cora Smith, Miss Isabel Whitcomb, Miss Betty Hanchette, Miss Alice Hoyes, Miss Eleanor Campbell, Mrs. Stitt and Annie Laurie Close.

The members of the committee in charge and those who will assist are: Mrs. William MacFerran, Mrs. George H. Whitcomb, Mrs. J. M. Brown, Mrs. J. B. Larimer, Mrs. J. F. Close, Mrs. Richard Smith, Mrs. J. W. P. Hughes, Mrs. Miss A. Briar and Mrs. Howard Johnston.

The girls of the senior class of the high school entered the boys of the class at a spread Friday evening at the home of Miss Frances Moore, on Harrison street. The rooms were decorated in the class colors, purple and white. Those present included: Miss Carmie Wolfe, Miss Grace Elmore, Miss Anna Bradford, Miss Caroline Morton, Miss Stella Beggs, Miss Mildred Morrison, Miss Marie Rucker, Miss Hazel Sherburne, Miss Ruth Sherman, Miss Alice Harrington, Miss Thea Baker, Miss Ella Wilson, Miss Josephine Curry, Miss Margaret Newberg, Miss Ruth Romgardner, Miss Lucile Bonner, Miss Florence Mower, Miss Helen Moore, Miss Irene Peak, Miss Frances Moore, Mr. Paul Bush, Mr. Manning Balch, Mr. Herbert Glass, Mr. Clay Baker, Mr. George Nettles, Mr. Clyde Baker, Mr. Paul Porter, Mr. Arthur Messick, Mr. William MacFerran, Mr. Churchill Sargent, Mr. Jay Shideler, Mr. Harold McGugin, Mr. Hobart McPherson.

A reception will be given Monday, December 7, from two to five o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. L. Cook, 1002 West Sixth avenue, by the C. W. B. M. of the First Christian church. All the women of the congregation are invited.

"Uncomfortable as the city jail is," says Mrs. C. B. Arthur, one of Topeka's policemen in reporting to the mayor, "it isn't any worse than the places where a great many of the city's prisoners come from." Mrs. Arthur thinks that if more money was spent in providing good places to live certain inmates of Topeka's society would take greater precautions for keeping out of jail.

According to a report made by George H. Hodges, governor of Kansas, by the state board of administration, the federal government should make appropriations for the care and prevention of human ailments, just as is done for the prevention and cure of diseases of animals. A station for this purpose should be established by the government and appropriations, such as are now given college experiment stations, made by the government for its maintenance.

The pastors of the United Brethren church will hold all day meetings at the Second United Brethren, Tuesday, December 8 beginning at 8:30 a. m.
